accused have been identified as Mahmud Saif Qureshi, Qureshi, Waseem Aslam Jaanzada, Sarfaraz Sipai, Mohsin Sipai and Aarif Mandali, all natives of Ahmedabad.

The criminal records of the accused go back to the 1980s. They were arrested for the past 10 years, and that they ran an organised crime syndicate under the name of the Fracture Gang, in an attempt to create their clout and create an atmosphere of terror among the people of Ahmedabad through extortion money," said a senior police officer.

The accused have been sent to court for punishment for "committing an offence of terrorist act or organised crime which results in death of a person, conspired to commit, abet, advocate or facilitate terrorist act or organised crime act offences, harbours/conceals any person involved in committing such offences, being a member of any organised crime syndicate and holding any property derived or obtained from commission of terrorist or organised crime act".

According to police, on Monday, five of the nine accused — Zaheer Qureshi, Aslam Jaanzada, Waseem Sipai, Sarfaraz Sipai and Aarif Mandali — have been arrested by Virangam town police station.

person on Tuesday, a division bench of Justices Bela Trivedi and Bhargav Karia sought details from the state government as well as municipal corporations with regard to compliance, non-compliance or partial compliance of its directives dated December 15, 2020 and February 26, 2021.

The bench remarked to advocate general Kamal Trivedi representing the state government, "You've woken up only after the court issued notices and passed orders... so many buildings (are) without BU (building use) permissions and (fire) NOCs... and this is going on since years! There were specific directions given to corporations, to nagarpalikas, to everyone, to see to not stop fires," the court said. In the PIL, filed after the ICU of Shrey Hospital in August 2020 killed eight people, Panchal sought strict implementation of all fire safety regulations and fixing of accountability on officials. The Gujarat HC has in several instances, strictures on state and local bodies for fire safety, especially in hospitals and schools.

Bharuch incident
Taking up the fire in Bharuch where 18 people died earlier this month, the bench pointed out to the state, represented by senior advocate Percy Kavina, that
